EVENT AND PERFORMANCE INFORMATION

Jeté Society Nutcracker Party

*December 17, 2010, Location TBD
Don't miss out on The Washington Ballet's Third Annual Jeté Society Nutcracker Party!
Enjoy Septime Webre's The Nutcracker followed by cocktails at one of DC's hotspots.*

Jeté Society Dance Party

Date and location TBD Chaired by Winston Bao Lord and Ashley Taylor, the annual Jeté Society Dance Party is a can't miss event that features live music, hot dancing and cold drinks. Proceeds benefit the Ballet's community engagement programs.

Beerandballets

Dates TBD Join us for two of our favorite things...beer and ballet! Each beerandballet lets you observe a working rehearsal in our intimate England Studio Theater. Afterward, grab a beer and some food and chat with TWB dancers at a casual reception.

Rock & Roll

Harman Center for the Arts, February 16-20 TWB rocks into 2011 in this triple-bill featuring Christopher Bruce's energetic and athletic Rooster; Trey McIntyre's autobiographical High Lonesome; and a world premiere by TWB's ever-innovative Artistic Director Septime Webre. Rock & Roll celebrates the heart and soul of a musical genre that continues to electrify the nation.

Carmen

*Harman Center for the Arts, May 18-22
TWB's Season closes with Webre's smoldering Carmen set to Georges Bizet's spirited score and complimented by Pablo Picasso-inspired sets. The program will also feature world premieres by TWB Associate Artistic Director David Palmer and rising star Edwaard Liang.*
