Exchanges may be made within the same production free of charge. Exchanges can be made between productions for a $10 fee. To process your exchange, The Washington Ballet must receive your tickets no later than 10am on the day of the performance you are exchanging out of, or by 10am Friday for Saturday or Sunday performances. After these deadlines you may only donate the tickets for tax credit. If the new tickets are more expensive, you will be charged the difference. The Washington Ballet does not issue refunds for less expensive tickets.

To exchange your tickets from a Warner Theatre, England Studio, or Sidney Harman Hall performance, please complete the exchange form and mail it to The Washington Ballet along with your old tickets. You can also fax this form, along with a copy of your destroyed tickets, to The Washington Ballet. To exchange from a Kennedy Center performance, you may also visit the Kennedy Center Box Office in person Monday-Saturday, 10am-9pm or Sunday, 12pm-9pm, or follow the instructions above on how to mail or fax your ticket exchange. Please note that the Warner Theatre and Sidney Harman Hall cannot process exchanges in person at their box offices. The Washington Ballet will confirm by email or phone all exchanges received by mail and fax. If you are interested in exchanging your WAM tickets, please contact TWB Ticket Services regarding the exchange procedure.

If your performance is less than two weeks away, please do not mail your exchange as we may not receive it in time. If we receive your exchange request at least 14 days before your new performance, your new tickets will be mailed to you. Otherwise, they will be held at Will Call at the venue's box office.
